New Killer - Slappy

New Power:

Soul Search- You send your spirit rushing forth from your body in search of the survivors for a short period of time. During this time, you can control it. If your spirit catches one of the survivors, your spirit will damage them.

"Trying to hide from me? That's like hiding from yourself." -Slappy

New Perks:

Lifelong Enslavement- You've lost count of how many have accidentally put themselves in your service. Whenever a survivor successfully completes a generator, the survivor is stunned for a few seconds. "You and I are one now. Inseparable! You are my slave!" -Slappy

Magic of Words- You can channel the power of the typewriter and its stories. Your power immediately downs whoever it hits if your power does damage normally. The power has a longer cooldown and stuns you briefly after use. "As long as the books remain locked, we're safe, but when they open, well, you've just seen what happens." -R.L. Stine

New Hex

Hex: The Twist- You can change the tale as it nears its close. When all the generators are all repaired, all survivors are brought to the injured state. "Because true creation comes from darkness. You can't create unless you allow yourself to sit in that darkness. The blackness, the nothingness that we have before the big idea. The perfect twist." -R.L. Stine
